MONTHLY FINANCIALS:

REGULAR SESSION:

STAFF RECOMMENDATION TO UPDATE CUSTOMER CURTAILMENT CONSUMPTION.

There was general discussion about updating the Customer Curtailment. Manager Weddle's recommendation is to change the Basic Allocation from 1300 to 1000 cu. ft. to begin the process of reducing the GPCD (gallons per capita per day). With Making Conservation a Way of Life regulation, by 2040 the GPCD will need to be down to 42 GPCD and we are currently at an average of 59.72 GPCD from June 2023 – July 2024. Lowering the curtailment to 1000 cu ft will start encouraging the customers, who are higher users, to start decreasing their consumption. Manager Weddle will continue to work through account usage, gathering data from full-time residents, part-time residents and accounts listed as an Air BnB. Director Farrell suggested changing our conservation tier, rather than changing the current Water Conservation structure.

MANAGER'S REPORT:

Field Maintenance – General Manager Weddle asked Operations Manager, David Sale, to provide an update on the PFAS testing. With this testing, it was discovered that Altdorf #4 was online as well as #1 and #2 wellheads. He also reported that two meters were replaced that were not working and a backflow device was installed for the new gym that Goodwins is opening.

Southern California Water Conference – Manager Weddle gave a recap of the day conference that he and Office Manager Quine attended.

Census Data – According to Worldpopulationreview.com, the population of Crestline is 9,319, which is much less than the 11,700 that has been used on the per capita use report. Because of this, it was reported that the per capita usage is higher than previously reported.

MONTHLY WATER PRODUCTION REPORTS:

Manager Weddle reviewed the water production reports for the month of July. It was stated that the two numbers representing population and people per household were adjusted to represent what is believed to be a more accurate representation of what is happening.

DIRECTORS REPORTS:

1. Director's reports:

- Director Brister mentioned the house within our District with the hose running again – District staff will look into it.
- Director Brister may be unable to attend the October meeting.
- Director Farrell reported on the statewide ACWA work plan. He went through the elements of the plan that included county and city planning, water use efficiency, housing vs water impact fees, and how LAFTCO needs to understand water issues.

2. Requests for Future Agenda Items: None.
